About EGS:

Mr. Ken Krueger is a veteran teacher, counselor, and consultant specializing full-time in helping students from 93 valley elementary schools, high schools, and colleges with college planning and standardized testing needs. He has a BA in economics and psychology from Duke University, an M.Ed. in guidance and counseling, and Arizona math, social studies, and guidance counseling credentials. He has 34 years of experience — 25 years in both public and private secondary schools in Ohio and Arizona, including Brophy College Prep, and 9 years as an independent consultant, counselor, and tutor.

Ken has assisted thousands of students with the challenging process of high school and college admissions, standardized test prepping for the HSPT, SAT I, SAT II, ACT, GMAT, and high school and college math tutoring. For more information, including credentials, services and fees, online resources for college planning, test dates, summer sessions, and testimonials, please visit our website (above).
